

Cara Keslar is the Monitoring Section Supervisor in the Wyoming Department of Environmental Quality – Air Quality Division. She has 18 years of experience in the environmental field, including 13 years in the Air Quality Division. Ms. Keslar has spent 10 years specializing in ambient air quality monitoring and ozone and also has extensive experience in National Environmental Policy Act issues. Ms. Keslar has a bachelor's degree in Chemical Engineering from Clarkson University and a master's degree in Environmental and Occupational Health from University of Illinois at Chicago.